THE TIMES.
A. H. CLEMENT Editor
WEDNESDAY, JULY 4, 1906.

"FIF EEN CENTS A DAY."

Much is said and written now a-days on the subject of the incurrect cost of living, but I know at least one fellow mortal who has not submitted to the "rise." He is a bachelor, keeps a store at a railway station, has his meals prepared and sent to him, keeps an accurate account and the cost is just 'fifteen cents a day."

Our friend is'nt a miser on the contrary looks ruddy, and is vigorous and healthy. He does'nt indulge in fried chicken often and ice cream rarely. Still he lives and flourishes.

A cheerful frame of mind comes with a desire and determination to be cheerful, and the habit, like all other habits grows with time and use. Whoever cultivates the cheerful habit will find his reward in his own happiness, which will grow as he perceives how much his cheerfulness and good humor add to the hapoiness of others.—Richmond Evening Journal.

Well said and worth repeating and remembering.

The one and only Hanna, "Amen" fame, and a man of piety, concludes a letter to the Christian Advocate, on the San Francisco horror in these words: "Thank Heaven for old Virginia, where the earth quakes with burating seed, and shakes with the tread of marching grain fields. Commodore Maury used to boast that Virginia was in the latitude of the Promised Land."

"Everybody works but father."—So the song goes but the history of Southside Virginia farming does'nt repeat the sentiment of the song. In many cases father is leading the row and his conduct is the inspiration of the home-fight for a living. We would'nt chloroform them though they are past sixty.

The Corporation Commission declined to allow Col. Button to take the oath of office as Commissioner of Insurance. The matter will no doubt be fought out before the Court of Appeals and we await it's decision without further comment at present.

Senator Bailey made a mistake in noticing Hearst, the editor. The editor has the advantage of the Senator, especially the editor who owns and controls many papers. He will never let up on the Bailey boys.

All Bryan needs now is word from Grover Cleveland to make it unanimous—Los Angeles Herald.

Grover Cleveland's opening gun for Bryan seems to be hanging fire—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Richmond Medical schools will hardly get together sooner than the Norfolk County Democrats. They cut alike, cure alike and sometimes kill alike, but they wont think alike.

The present Congress doesn't excite much of admiration, but when it passed the Jamestown Appropriation bill we were disposed to say, "with all your faults we love you still."

It has been demonstrated that Wm. Jennings Bryan is not only the greatest living Democrat but the greatest living American. Such a man ought to be President whether he ever is or not.

Taft or Fairbanks is the latest issue. In due time it will be Bryan or Taft. Taft will be the Republican nominee and for the good reason that he is the Roosevelt choice.

Governor Swanson will enter the Congressional race in his old District in the interest of the candidacy of Judge Saunders, who will no doubt succeed him.

South Boston has no idea of remaining in ashes, but will shake them from her garments and shine out in fairer colors.

Shame upon the authorities of our Confederate Home that soldierly old and infirm should have been sent to a mad house.

An exchange says, "farmers are kept busy these days to keep neighbors from stealing their hired hands."

"Push and Publicity," says the Richmond Times-Dispatch have made Richmond great and will make it greater; and so say we all.

Read of "High Life" in New York, and you need'nt go to the novels for tragedy, or romance, or the pathetic.

The Philadelphia Press says: "In the general judgment the "Standard Oil" is the most flagrant as well as the most powerful offender among all the trusts." Mistake, brother. Put the G. O. P. first and if you choose the Standard next. Strike at the root of the evil and you may hope to cure it.

Governor Swanson made use of this striking sentence in his speech before the Lassiter ratification meeting in Petersburg. "If the Democrats of the nation will unite on living issues rather than divide on dead ones they will win the next fight." There is a chunk of wisdom for you.

That is an important meeting of the farmers which is to begin in Roanoke on the 10th of the present month. Farmers who can attend should do so, and return home ready "to make ten blades of grass grow where only one grew before," and to kill two where they have been killing but one.

President Roosevelt and Senator Tillman need not hope to be quiet under the same bed spread. Too much "strenuosity" in those corporosities for that. While politics do make strange bed fellows, there is a strangeness that cannot be converted into sameness.

There are only 24 farmers in the present Congress out of a total membership of 477. And thats why the highways of the country are unswept, unhonored and unsung." Public buildings "galore" but public highways, "shoo fly don't bother me."

Governor Swanson has appointed Capt. P. St. Julian Wilson, Commissioner of Highways, and as we under-tand it the appointee will hold himself in readiness to serve the counties of the State. Now let's "get together and mend our ways."

It is said that President Roosevelt and Senator Tillman are facing each other ready for friendly greeting, and the question is, who will make first advance. Move simultaneously gentlemen, and "quit your foolishness."

No man can safely or profitably keep money on his person or about his premises now-a-days. Put your money to your credit in bank. The check is as good as the cash provided you have the money in bank and no one can make use of an unsigned check.

The Board of Governors of the Jamestown Exposition have done their duty in connection with proper county exhibits. Now let the Boards of Supervisors do theirs. Virginia must be to the fore at the show.

The President's daughter is being rovally received abroad, and the husband of necessity shares in the honors so generously bestowed. "The husband of Alice" and no longer the member from Ohio.

Out of the 294 consuls representing this country only 24 are from the South. And this is one grand shame since the exports from the South keep the balance of trade in favor of the United States.

There is no "stampede" about it but the trend is Bryanward, and in our opinion, can no more be successfully resisted than can the tides of the seas.

The saloons have opened in San Francisco again and the license tax has been put at $6500 on each of them. Does high license take the sting out of the evil?

When the airship returns from the north pole we may expect to know what they've been fighting for, and then the "scurvion" will soon follow.

Senator Tillman will have formidable opposition in his coming canvass for another term in the Senate. Now watch the fur fly.

A keg of beer sunk a pleasure boat the other day. It is heavier on board than a ton of iron ore.

How men are abused! Yet is it not a fact that you know a dozen good men to every unreliable one?

John A. Forbes.....Plaintiff, against
John A. Forbes and wife and others.....Defendants.
The object of this suit is to partition two tracts of lands, one situated partly in the County of Buckingham, Va., and partly in the County of Appomattox, Va., adjoining the lands of Mrs. Mary Forbes, the lands of the late Frederick Forbes, containing 425 acres, more or less, and the other in Francisco District of Buckingham County, Va., and containing 107¾, between the heirs at law of John S. Forbes, deceased, to-wit: John A. Forbes and Samuel G. Forbes, deceased, according to their respective interest therein and to subject the interest of the heirs at law of John S. Forbes, deceased, or so much thereof as may be necessary to the payment of a debt of $500.00 with interest from the 6th day of December, 1904, till paid, and secured by deed of trust on said land bearing date the 7th day of June, 1904, and recorded in the Clerk's Office of Buckingham County, Va., in D. B. No. 73, pages 194-5, due to Floyd L. Forbes, assignee of Bill and Annie Forbes, and it appearing by an affidavit duly made and filed that the defendants, J. A. Forbes, C. J. Forbes and W. A. Forbes, children of John S. Forbes, deceased, and Nannie E. Forbes are not residents of this State, it is ordered that they do appear in the Appomattox and Buckingham Circuit Court on the first day after due publication hereof, and do protect their interest in this suit. Lost—Between West Appomattox and Evergreen, or on the Methodist church ground at Evergreen, a gold wish-b ne pin. Finder will please return same to this office and receive reward.

At a meeting of the County School Board here Friday we understand that the board practically agreed to employ Prof. Davidson as principal for the High School for next year.

The entertainment at Memorial Church last night was pronounced to be entertaining, instructive and enjoyable. A similar entertainment with different pictur s etc. will be given at all the Methodist churches on the circuit.

There will be a meeting of the Appomattox Camp of Confederate Veterans held at Appomattox Court House on the 14th day of July 1906 All members are urgently request ed to be present.
W. T. Johnson Com'dr.
J. R. Atwood Sec'y.

The marriage of Miss E. Kirkwood Becraft of Wytheville, Va., and Mr. Roy C. Hurt, of Salisbury N. C. was solemnized at Lychburg on the 27th.

The bride taught school in this county last year at Oakville. The groom is a native of Radford, Va., and is connected with the Southern R. R. at Spencer, N. C. After an extensive weeding tour they will make their home in Salisbury N. C

The joint picnic held at Evergreen last Friday was greatly enjoyed by all. Plenty of fun, fried chicken and everything good to eat, and the best spring of water to be found in the county. Mrs. McGill and Miss Nina Jones were chaperones and they proved themselves model ones. Mrs. McGill leaves to-day for Kansas, where her husband is engaged in business.

Mr. Emmett Turnes, who is em on the Tidewater R. R. at Roanoke, had the misfortune a few days ago of injuring his good eye with a flying piece of steel. The physicians in the camp probed for the piece of steel but could not find it, and he is now here with his sister, Mrs. H. Tyree, under care of physicians. It is our thought that his injury will keep him in long.

These gentlemen spoke of the general benefits to those who become members of the order, but the main object of both speakers was to introduce a new plan to pledge and handle the farmers of the five counties adjacent to Lynchburg. As soon as the organization presents to our farmers a copy of the by-laws and charter explaining its objects and purposes our farmers will no doubt give its support and consideration.

Miss Jones Will Leave.

Miss M. Anna Jones, who has been teaching music here, has accepted the position as head of the Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S. C., and will leave here Aug. 1st.

This school ranks among the first in the South and Miss Jones is eminently fitted for the position, having been educated at Hollins Institute and in New York under the leading teachers there.

Beckley has been fortunate in having Miss Jones here, as she has in her teaching given universal satisfaction, as well as winning a place in the hearts of the people through her music and personality.—Raleigh W. Va. Herald.

Miss Jones and her assistant are now making a short song and reading recital tour of W. Va. She is expected home on a visit before she takes up her work in the S. C field.

Dissolution Notice.

The copartnership heretofore existing between us is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Parties indebted to the firm will please come forward and settle with cash or bond as we are anxious to wind up the old copartnership business.
